

The decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to demand their stations air one-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy.

This a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair is a great example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Please, we need to strengthen media rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
